

GENERAL TARIFF

BUSINESS AND RESIDENCE SERVICE

---

1. GENERAL

1.01 The Company classifies a customer's service as business or residence for the application of exchange service rates according to its primary use.

2. BUSINESS SERVICE

2.01 The business classification applies when the service is used primarily or substantially for a commercial, industrial, professional, institutional, vocational or otherwise occupational purpose or for any purpose other than that of a domestic or family nature.

2.02 The business classification applies in such circumstances as the following:

(a) When a directory listing indicates other than primarily domestic use.

(b) When the service is advertised or publicized in connection with any non-domestic use; except that the residence service of a person may be publicized in connection with the person's business service where the two services are in the same local area.

(c) In boarding and rooming houses and other places in which four or more persons are accommodated for payment, and in residence quarters of any club, institution or similar place, where guests, boarders, employees or other persons not members of the customer's household have general access to the service.

2.03 If any part of the customer's service is used primarily for a non-domestic purpose or is in a location where the business classification would apply, the entire service is classified as business, except that a customer may have the following:

(a) When the customer's residence service is extended to equipment located on the premise of a telephone answering board.

(b) A customer to both Business and Residence service may have either of the following:

(1) Connection of residence service with terminating equipment of the customer's business service.

(2) An additional telephone connected to the residence service at the location of the customer's business service.

2. BUSINESS SERVICE (Cont'd)

GENERAL TARIFF

---

2.04 When the company is applying the residence classification but finds that the business classification is applicable, it may henceforth charge the appropriate business rate upon notifying the customer.

3. RESIDENCE SERVICE

3.01 The residence classification applies when the service is used primarily for domestic or family purposes and none of the requirements for the business classification exist.
