

GENERAL TARIFF

EXCHANGE RADIO-TELEPHONE SERVICE

1.01 General

- (a) Exchange Radio - Telephone Service is a telephone service designed to link remote locations within an exchange area by V.H.F. radio.
- (b) The service is fully integrated into the public telephone exchange network.

1.02 Rates & charges

The following rates and charges are in addition to the basic exchange rates and distance charges.

DESCRIPTION	MRC	SC	USOC
Radio - Customer requested Note (1)	$118.25	$847.20	7EV
Radio - Company initiated	-	-	7EVNC
Power Supply	$8.00	- (2)	7EVJ1
Tower 60'	$21.35	- (3)	7EV06
Tower 90'	$29.50	- (3)	7EV09
Tower 120'	$43.00	- (3)	7EV12
Tower - Company initiated	-	-	7EVTF

NOTE 1: The rate includes radio unit, antenna and coaxial cable.

NOTE 2: The customer is to provide and maintain all necessary power be it 110 VAC, 60 Hz, or a 12 volt battery and charges for the radio. Upon request, the Company will provide a battery charger for an additional charge. Such charge to be quoted upon request.

NOTE 3: The customer is to erect and maintain own tower. MRC is for existing Company owned structures only.

1.03 Maintenance

- (a) Regular maintenance will be performed on site free of charge to the customer. Transportation other than wheeled vehicles shall be provided by the customer.
- (b) Customer is liable for repair of damage to the equipment inflicted by the customer - normal wear and tear excepted.

GENERAL TARIFF

EXCHANGE RADIO-TELEPHONE SERVICE

(c)

1.04 Message Rates

- (a) Free calling into Base Station Exchange Area.
- (b) Regular long distance rates apply beyond the Base Station Exchange.

1.05 License Fee

The customer is responsible for the annual Industry Canada Radio license fee.

1.06 Normal Installation Schedule

12 weeks after receipt of firm order and necessary information

1.07 Contract Interval

- (a) Minimum 6 months continuous
- (b) Full rates apply even if service is temporarily disconnected within the 6-month period
- (c) Contract agreement forms part of the request for service

1.08 Suspension of service (USOC SUS)

- (a) Suspension of service refers to temporary disconnection of a service due to non-payment or a customer's request.
- (b) Facilities are reserved for the restoration of the same service during the period of suspension; therefore, full rentals apply for equipment and service during the period of temporary suspension.
- (c) If required, accommodation and transportation are supplied by the customer to temporarily remove the equipment.

1.08A Termination of Service

- (a) Termination of service means disconnection of the service due to a non-payment or a customer's request.
- (b) Facilities are removed upon termination of service.
- (c) Reconnection will be treated as a request for new service.
- (d) If required, accommodation and transportation are

GENERAL TARIFF

EXCHANGE RADIO-TELEPHONE SERVICE

supplied by the customer.

1.09 Reconnection of Terminated Service

- (a) Termination due to non-payment, termination upon customer's request:

Reconnection of terminated service may be done upon customer's request for new service, provided:

- (1) the base station facility and capacity is available
- (2) necessary accommodation and transportation are supplied by customer
- (3) Exchange radio-telephone service charges as in 400-1.02 applicable
- (4) Customer is willing to use a new telephone number if the previous assignment is not available

1.09A Request for Initial and Additional Services

- (a) Additional telephone accessories such as loud bells, plugs and jacks, etc., may be added. Regular rates and charges apply.
- (b) Customer owned equipment is not allowed to interconnect with exchange radio - telephone service unless approval is obtained from the Company.